Why Grace City?

'Grace' is a description of an aspect of the character of God we want to extol, embrace and operate in. (2 Peter 3:18, Ephesians 4:7, 1 Peter 4:10, 2 Corinthians 12:9).

Christians are citizens of a Heavenly City, who live in the presence of the Lord. We therefore learn to dwell daily by grace in God's presence and be kingdom minded as we live, worship and serve here on earth. (Hebrews 12:22-24,28; Philippians 3:17, 20)

We are reminded that there is the Eternal Heavenly City to come, which we hope in and look forward to as we await the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. (Hebrews 11:9,10 13-16; Revelation 21:1-23)
